

BREAST CANCER SUPPORT GROUPS

WOMEN COMING TOGETHER TO SUPPORT EACH OTHER

This project is a community-initiated research collaboration that will study the value of providing support group services via video conferencing to breast cancer survivors.

A Community Research Project for Women with Breast Cancer residing in nine
Northern California Counties

By enrolling in this project you will:

- 👉 Be able to participate in a support group at your local clinic or hospital using video conferencing
- 👉 Share your experiences in a small support group setting with other breast cancer survivors in your own and other rural Northern California communities.

If you would like additional information or are interested in participating in this project, please contact:

Susan Ferrier (530) 470-9091 susan@nsrhn.org	Mary Anne Kreshka (530) 265-4193 kreshka@sbcglobal.net
-----------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------

Your County Coordinator: